

Bhutan Tour - 10 Days

This 10-day Bhutan tour takes you on a journey through the cultural and natural wonders of the Land of the Thunder Dragon. Starting in Kathmandu, explore UNESCO sites before flying to Paro. Upon arrival, transfer to Thimphu, Bhutan's charming capital, where you visit Tashichho Dzong, Buddha Dordenma, and the Folk Heritage Museum.

Drive to Punakha via Dochula Pass (3,100m) for stunning Himalayan views. Explore Punakha Dzong and Chimi Lhakhang before heading to the serene Phobjikha Valley, home to Gangtey Monastery and the Black-Necked Crane Center. Return to Paro and embark on a breathtaking hike to the iconic Tiger's Nest Monastery, perched on a cliff at 3,120m.

Discover more of Paro's heritage at Kyichu Lhakhang and the National Museum before flying back to Kathmandu. Enjoy a free day for sightseeing or shopping before departure. This journey blends cultural immersion, scenic beauty, and spiritual experiences, making it a perfect Bhutan adventure.

Swayambhunath Stupa (Monkey Temple)

Swayambhunath, also known as the Monkey Temple, is one of Kathmandu's most sacred Buddhist sites. Perched on a hilltop, it offers stunning panoramic views of the city. The stupa, adorned with Buddha's all-seeing eyes, symbolizes enlightenment. Colorful prayer flags flutter in the wind, creating a peaceful spiritual atmosphere. Pilgrims walk around the stupa spinning prayer wheels, chanting mantras. The temple complex includes shrines, statues, and playful monkeys. It is a perfect place to experience Nepal's blend of Buddhism and Hinduism, making it a must-visit cultural landmark in Kathmandu.

Kathmandu Durbar Square

Kathmandu Durbar Square is a historic palace complex showcasing Nepal's rich cultural heritage. Once the royal residence of the Malla and Shah kings, it is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The square features exquisite pagoda-style temples, intricate wood carvings, and the famous Kumari Ghar, home to the living goddess Kumari. Key
