

Classic Cycle Tour in Nepal - 15 Days

The Classic Cycle Tour in Nepal offered by Trek Mania Nepal is a thrilling and unforgettable adventure that takes you on a cycling journey through some of the country's most beautiful landscapes, rich cultural towns, and diverse ecosystems. This tour is designed for those who want to experience Nepal in a unique and sustainable way, combining the excitement of cycling with the charm of exploring off-the-beaten-path destinations. From the bustling streets of Kathmandu to the peaceful villages nestled in the Himalayas, the Classic Cycle Tour is a perfect blend of adventure, culture, and nature.

Starting in Kathmandu, Nepal's vibrant capital, the tour allows you to experience the rich history, culture, and architecture of the city. As you pedal out of the busy city streets, the ride takes you towards Dakshinkali, a serene destination famous for its temple dedicated to the goddess Kali. The journey is filled with scenic views of terraced fields, rolling hills, and small villages, giving you a glimpse into the traditional Nepali way of life.

The cycling tour continues through the lush valleys of Tistung and Palung, known for their picturesque landscapes and agricultural richness. As you make your way through these regions, you'll encounter local farmers working in the fields, children playing, and the warm hospitality of the people. The route also offers an opportunity to experience Nepal's natural beauty up close, with towering hills and dense forests surrounding the path.

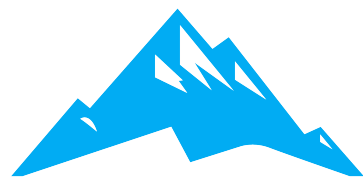

One of the highlights of the tour is visiting Chitwan National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Here, you'll have the chance to take a break from cycling and enjoy a safari in one of Nepal's most renowned wildlife reserves. From spotting endangered species like the one-horned rhinoceros to glimpses of majestic Bengal tigers, Chitwan offers an exciting wildlife experience, adding another layer of adventure to your cycling tour.

After the excitement of Chitwan, the journey takes you to the charming hilltop town of Bandipur. This well-preserved town is steeped in Newari culture, with its traditional architecture, quaint cafes, and panoramic views of the Himalayas. Bandipur offers a perfect retreat after the long days of cycling, allowing you to soak in the cultural heritage and tranquil atmosphere of this historic town.

From Bandipur, you'll continue your ride to Pokhara, a city known for its stunning lakeside views and the majestic backdrop of the Annapurna mountain range. In Pokhara, you can relax by the famous Phewa Lake or explore the city's vibrant markets. It's a peaceful and scenic stop before the next leg of the journey takes you deeper into the mountains.

The tour then heads towards the wind-swept town of Jomsom and the sacred pilgrimage site of Muktinath. Cycling through the rugged terrain of the Kali Gandaki valley, you'll be treated to breathtaking views of towering peaks, ancient monasteries, and the ever-changing landscape of the high Himalayas. At Muktinath Temple, you'll experience the spiritual significance of this sacred place, which is revered by both Hindus and Buddhists.

After exploring Muktinath, the journey brings you to Marpha, famous for its apple orchards and local brandy, and then to Tatopani, where you can soak in natural hot springs—an ideal way to relax your muscles after several days of cycling. The soothing hot water at Tatopani is a rejuvenating experience, helping you recharge before the final legs of
