Kaligandaki River Rafting - 3 Days

Kaligandaki River rafting is an amazing journey in Nepal's breathtaking Mustang area. The Kaligandaki River originates on the Tibetan plateau and weaves its way through the Himalayas, providing a thrilling experience for both novice and expert rafters. The river has a variety of rapids ranging from class III to IV, offering an exhilarating challenge against the backdrop of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri mountain ranges. This experience allows participants to immerse themselves in the region's natural splendor as they travel through rural communities and steep valleys. This excursion promises an unparalleled combination of whitewater adrenaline and magnificent landscape, making it a must-see for adventurers in Nepal.

ITINERARY IN DETAIL

Day 1: Drive to Maldhunga from Pokhara

Our staff will pick you up from your accommodation in Pokhara and transport you to Maldhunga. This trip will take around 3 hours, and once we arrive, we will set-up our tent on the beach beside the river and spend the night.

Day 2: Madikhola to Purtighat rafting

After a brief morning meal, we'll get ready for our rafting trip. we will meet up with our guide and other personnel who will give us brief lessons regarding rafting guides and safety procedures. Now we're ready to hit the river route, battle numerous rapids, and enjoy the magnificent landscape along the way. After we get to Modikhola, we will set up our tent, eat our meals, and spend the night near the river.

Day 3: Rafting then drive back to Pokhara or Kathmandu

Today, after our morning breakfast, we will begin our rafting expedition and continue our rafting, enjoying the thrill of white-water adventure while exploring the different scenery along the Kaligandaki River. After reaching our take-out location, we shall rest for a bit before returning to Pokhara.
