Day 2: Kathmandu Sightseeing

1. Thamel is the oldest city part of Kathmandu. It is the commercial hub of Kathmandu. The nightlife of Thamel is another mentionable thing. From Mountain gear you need before you plan for treks to the serene Thangka paintings, Thamel is a wholesome site for books, restaurants, clothing stores, and antique shops. Different High-standard hotels are also here.
2. Pasupatinath and drive you to your first stop, the Pashupatinath temple. This temple is considered to be one of the most sacred Hindu temples devoted to Lord Shiva. Explore the temple complex, see the rites, and see the cremation ghats on the Bagmati River.
3. Budhanilkantha Temple: Located here is a Deity of Lord Vishnu, Vishnu (Narayan) Jalasayana, lying on Ananta Sesa, in the cosmic ocean. The Deity is over 1,000 years old. Lord Vishnu is about 5m (17 ft) long and is lying in a 13m (43 ft) long tank, as if floating, with His legs crossed.
4. Swaymbhunath Temple: Known as Monkey Temple, Swaymbhunath Temple is a prime place for sightseeing in Kathmandu. It can act like a binocular for making a smart peek at the chaos city of Kathmandu. The Temple is a religious place for both Hindus and Buddhists. Located on the Top of the Hill, this holy shrine is an imposing stupa with Fascinating Buddha eyes and a golden spire. This place offers a breathtaking view of Kathmandu Valley. This site is believed to have originated 2000 years ago.
